

TOMBSTONE TOWN TOPICS TERSELY TOLD

MONDAY

ON OFFICIAL BUSINESS

County Attorney J. F. Ross is in Bisbee today on official business.

ATTENDING COURT

Constable H. H. Bohmfalk, of Lowell, is in Tombstone today attending the session of the superior court.

TUCSON ATTORNEY

Attorney Francis M. Hartman, of Tucson, is interested this week in a case being tried before Judge Albert Sames.

VISITED IN BENSON

Justice of the Peace H. P. Merrill and wife visited in Benson Sunday with Mrs. Merrill's sister, Mrs. Lena Moss.

FROM BISBEE

Chas. McDonald spent his week-end with friends here, returning to Bisbee today.

ON BUSINESS

A. N. Gaines, secretary of the Cochise County Taxpayers' association, is spending a few days in Douglas and other county points.

IN TOWN

Jimmie Brown, assistant state highway engineer, in charge of all paving projects, is in town closing up matters relating to the 10-mile paving strip just finished by the state.

TOMBSTONE VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Erick, of Tucson, and Miss Paula Kornbrock, of Cincinnati, Ohio, spent several days here as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Davis.

RETURNED TO BISBEE

John H. Davis, assistant to P. G. Beckett, of the Phelps Dodge interests, spent the week-end with his family, returning to Bisbee this morning.

TORN DOWN

The paving plant of Miller & White is now dismantled, awaiting for cars so it can be shipped to Yuma where it will form one unit of the two plants to be used in the laying of 12 miles of the block street in Yuma county.

JOHNSON HERE

Mr. Robert Johnson, cattleman of Government Draw, is in town today seeing friends.

CATTLEMAN VISITS

Mr. James Parker, cattleman of Gendle, Santa Cruz county, is here today.

7 JURORS REPORT

Of the 49 names drawn Friday for jurors, returnable this morning, only 7 reported, whereupon Judge Lockwood ordered a drawing of 25 additional to report for duty tomorrow morning at 9:30.

HERE IN CASE

Joe and Homer Fisher, cattleman and ranchers of Pearce, are in town. They being plaintiffs in a case against Gov. Thos. E. Campbell, wherein some state land is involved.

FRAZIER IN CITY

Mr. I. T. Frazier, state superintendent of highway maintenance was here this morning.

DOUGLAS DEPUTY

Deputy Sheriff Verne Lamore, of Douglas, is in Tombstone on official business.

IN BISBEE

Miss Nell Kneminger, stenographer in the Supervisor's office, spent Saturday in Bisbee visiting friends.

LOOKING FOR HOME

Mrs. George Roark, of Douglas, wife of the incoming under sheriff, is in Tombstone today house hunting, preparatory to moving here.

LEGAL LIGHTS

Attorneys H. E. Pickett, C. V. Manatt, W. G. Gilmore, Bruce Stephenson and George M. Roark are Tombstone visitors this week, attending to official court duties.

"HARMONY FOUR"

The well-known "Harmony Four" musical comedy artists gave a very creditable performance at the Crystal theater last night to a large and appreciative audience. The "Harmony Four" are scheduled to play for a dance at Benson tonight which many local residents will attend.

WITNESSES

Chief of Police Percy Bowden and Constable J. W. Fourn, of Douglas, are in town today as witnesses in a case being tried before Judge Albert

Sames.

XMAS TREE PROCURED

The municipal Christmas tree was brought to town last evening by Mr. and Mrs. O. "Buster" Rushin, Mr. and Mrs. George Ivey and Mrs. Kate Igo from the top of the Puerco mountains.

RED GANNON IN CITY

J. L. (Red) Gannon, of "Red's" Service Station, Lowell, is in the city today on business.

HERE ON BUSINESS

J. D. (Jeff) Milton, immigration officer at Fairbank, is in the city on business connected with his office.

COURT HOUSE VISITORS

Constable-elect Fred Kinney and Justice of the Peace-elect N. J. McKenzie, of Lowell, were noted at the court house today.

ST. DAVID VISITOR

J. N. Christensen, formerly of St. David, is a Tombstone visitor today.

FILM REPRESENTATIVE

L. R. Seamanhorn, Fox Film representative, spent the day in Tombstone.

FROM BISBEE

Stewart Grant, of Bisbee, was in town yesterday conferring with his brother, Jack, at the local branch store.

SNOW IN CHIRICAHUA

Parties in the city yesterday from the Chiricahua mountains bring word that there was a light fall of snow in that range on both Friday and Saturday mornings, and that the tops of the high peaks are covered with white.

TUESDAY

OVER FROM FAIRBANK

W. H. Miller, of Fairbank, spent Tuesday shopping in town.

SANTA RITAN IN TOMBSTONE

J. A. Nash, of Santa Rita, is renewing acquaintances in Tombstone.

GLOBE MERCHANT HERE

Louis Ware, a Globe business man, was a Tombstone visitor today.

WILCOX VISITORS

C. M. Roberts and George M. L. Mee, of Wilcox, were in town today.

CATTLEMAN HERE

S. W. Kuling, a prominent Rodeo, New Mexico, cattleman, is looking over the territory contiguous to Tombstone.

PHOENICIAN IS VISITOR

Cal Messner, well-known resident of Phoenix, spent the day in Tombstone renewing old acquaintances.

MONTANANS VISIT FRIENDS

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Cronin, prominent merchant of Butte, Mont., stopped in Tombstone Monday and Tuesday visiting some old mining friends.

TURNER CATTLEMAN HERE

James D. Laury, cattleman of Turner, is a business visitor in Tombstone today.

EMIL MARKS VISITS

Emil Marks, lumberman of the Warren District, is a Tombstone business visitor today.

E. M. WOOD HERE

Attorney E. M. Wood of the law firm of Knapp & Wood, of Bisbee, who is the legal representative of the C. & A. Mining company, was a Tombstone visitor today.

JUDGE-ELECT DARNELL

Attorneys George R. Darnell, judge-elect of Pima county, and Francis M. Hartman, of Tucson, are attending the session of the superior court here today.

ENTERTAINED AT DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Fowler entertained a group of friends at dinner on Sunday evening last. Those who enjoyed the hospitality of the home were, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Tilford and son, Mrs. Emma Kerr, Miss Gertrude Lake and Billy Fowler.

LAWYERS ATTEND TRIALS

Attorneys David Benahimol, Bruce Stephenson, James P. Boyle and C. V. Manett, of Douglas, are interested in cases now being tried in the superior court here.

ROSS SCOURS COUNTY

County Attorney John F. Ross spent Monday in Bisbee and Douglas looking up cases still to be tried during the present session of superior court.

OREGONIANS DROP IN

R. C. Barfield and family, after touring the entire country from coast to coast and now returning to their home in Salem, Ore., told friends here it was indeed a pleasure for them again to renew their acquaintances with old friends. They left for Phoenix this morning.

HAYS-McILVOY WITNESSES

Frank W. Rottman and Attorney J. C. Gungl, of Wilcox, arrived today to be witnesses in the case of L. H. Hays against Louis McIlvoy.

LEGAL EXPERTS HERE

Attorneys Fred A. Sutter, Alexander Murray, of Bisbee, and John C. Gungl and Lyman Hays, of Wilcox, are here today.

ATTEND BROPHY FUNERAL

J. P. Connelly, of the First National bank, and J. N. Gaines went to Tucson to attend the funeral of W. J. Brophy, which was held there today.

ILLINOIS VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Burgess, of Evanston, Ill., are visiting friends in Tombstone the past few days.

COLORADOAN STOPS OVER

Much impressed by the beauty of Tombstone's climate and other attractions, Martin Helmuth, of St. Martins, Colo., is spending a few days here sightseeing.

"HUNTER BILL" RETURNS

"Bill" Hurley reports a fine bagging of gray fox, coyote, skunks and coon cats from the government draw reserve. He returned to Tombstone today.

TO REENTER HOSPITAL

Maurice Whalen, former janitor of the county court house, left for Douglas this morning to re-enter the county hospital for further treatment following his recent operation for hernia, which he is said to have contracted while janitor at the court house.

ASKS NON-SUIT

The suit to recover damages from the city of Douglas, instituted by L. F. Parker was, on motion of the complainant, dismissed by Judge Lockwood in department one of the superior court this morning.

BEN B. MATHEWS HERE

Ben B. Mathews, assistant county attorney of Tucson, is in Tombstone on legal matters today.

FORMER CITIZEN RETURNS

Allen Larison, former Tombstone mechanic, drove into town from California today. He is considering again taking up his residence here.

COUPLE VISIT BISBEE

William Lutley and wife were Bisbee visitors Monday.

BISBEE ATTORNEY HERE

Frank Thomas, Bisbee attorney, is in Tombstone on legal business for a few days.

WEDNESDAY

MORE LIGHT

Electric lights have been installed in the Modern Cafe.

TO BISBEE ON STAGE

Robert Bixby left for Bisbee on the Rockhill stage.

BISBEEITE AS JUROR

Frank Huckleby, of Bisbee, is serving on the jury in Judge Lockwood's court.

JOE FOX VISITOR

Joe Fox, a prominent Tucson citizen, was a Tombstone visitor today.

PIONEER IMPROVING

A. T. Schuster, one of Tombstone's oldest pioneers, who has been ill for some time past, is said to be steadily improving.

CITIZEN VISITS NOGALES

R. B. Krebs, proprietor of the R. B. Krebs Auto company, left for Nogales this morning on business.

EL PASOAN STOPS OVER

R. L. Ash, of El Paso, spent Tuesday and Wednesday in town visiting friends.

TO CALIFORNIA

Earl Kolb and sister, Miss Lottie Grace Kolb, will spend Christmas with their relatives near Los Angeles.

MOVED

M. R. Bergquist has moved his family into the residence recently occupied by Grant Warner.

IMMIGRATION INSPECTORS HERE

Sam Wright and Jeff Milton, immigration inspectors of Tucson, spent Tuesday in Tombstone.

TARDY JURORS REPORT

W. L. Karmaster, Whitehall, L. L. Ingie, Light, and J. R. Hack, of Central Bridges, jurors summoned Monday, reported in Judge Lockwood's court this morning for jury duty.

DISAPPOINTMENT

Keen disappointment was felt by a large crowd at the Crystal theater last night because of the non-arrival of the "Leather Pushers" owing to the blunder of the Safford theater management, shipping them back to Los Angeles instead of Tombstone.

VISITING DAUGHTER

Mrs. A. Staniger, of Tombstone, left today to visit her daughter, Mrs. Paul Joyce, of Whetstone.

COUNTY ATTORNEY TO BISBEE

County Attorney J. F. Ross was in Bisbee today on business connected with his office.

YULETIDE SCHOOL VACATION

Next Friday afternoon the schools of the county will close for the Yuletide holidays, not to re-open until January 3, next.

STANDARD OIL MAN HERE

J. K. Hutchings, manager of the Bisbee branch of the Standard Oil company, was a Tombstone visitor Wednesday.

RETURNED HOME

Mrs. J. Grant returned home today from Bisbee where she spent several days visiting her mother.

LOWELL AUTO MAN HERE

P. W. Wilson, Lowell auto salesman and garage manager, was a Tombstone visitor today.

FROM RANCH

Harry Hasselgren was in town from his ranch yesterday. Harry says that a law is needed to protect the cattle industry from the "speeders," as many cattle are being killed by fast drivers on the state highway where it is not fenced.

THURSDAY

ON BISBEE SHOPPING TRIP

Mrs. Ed Massey and Mrs. J. M. Philippowski motored to Bisbee on a pre-holiday shopping trip Wednesday.

BLYTH GOES TO DOUGLAS

Under sheriff Charles Blyth went to Douglas this morning on official business.

BANKER LOCAL VISITOR

A. G. Smith, president of the Cochise County State Bank and cashier of the Benson branch, is in town today on official business connected with the conduct of his banks.

CATTLEMAN A VISITOR

Col. Henry Pyatt, of Canille, prominent cattleman and a director in the Cochise County State Bank, was seen in Tombstone today.

EX-POSTMASTER RECOVERING

Former postmaster Paul Smith, who has been confined to his home for some time past, suffering from an attack of the la grippe, is now said to be rapidly recovering.

RAILROAD OFFICIALS HERE

C. F. Gould and S. P. Bluet, railroad officials were in Tombstone today on official business. They left for Tucson this afternoon.

SHERIFF HOOD RETURNS

Sheriff Joe Hood with deputies Gipsen and Lamore, returned last night from Florence where they went, having in custody three prisoners for the state penitentiary.

DARNELL AND WIFE HERE

Judge-elect George R. Darnell and wife, of Tucson, are visiting friends in Tombstone for a few days. Judge Darnell will take his seat as superior court judge of Pima county on January 1, next.

TO SPEND HOLIDAYS HERE

Miss Olive Smith, of Hamilton, O., daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, of Tombstone, will arrive here tomorrow night to spend the holidays with her mother. Miss Smith recently graduated as a trained nurse and since that time has been visiting with friends throughout the east.

COURT OFFICIALS ON TRIP

Superior Judge Albert Sames and Court Reporter Harry D. Palmer of department No. 2, of the superior court, went to Bisbee and Douglas on official business today.

JURY BAILIFFS RESIGN

Charles Vincent and Sam Johnson, jury bailiffs for the Cochise county court, tendered their resignations to take effect at the conclusion of the present case now on trial.

MARRIAGE LICENSE ISSUED

A marriage license was issued this morning by J. E. James, clerk of the superior court, for Joseph T. Scott, aged 25, of Pomerene, and Miss Theresa C. Sabia, 21 years old, also of Pomerene.

RANCHER HERE

E. G. Simmons, pioneer rancher from Gardner Canyon, was in Tombstone today transacting business.

FROM TURNER

S. N. Gordon and daughter, Miss

Bessie, were visitors in Tombstone today from their ranch at Turner.

GETTING SHORT

The time for shooting quail expires on the setting of the sun December 31. Just ten more shooting days and it is off.

GOING UP

The first building of the two that comprise the Union high school is "shooting up" and is quite noticeable. The foundation for the second building is complete.

EVERYBODY

It should be remembered that the community Christmas tree for Saturday night is for all the children in the town. Every "kiddie" must be made happy.

MEET TONIGHT

The Blue Lodge Masons and Order of Eastern Star will meet tonight for joint installation of the newly elected officers after which a supper will be served and then the members will dance for a couple of hours.

IN FROM RANCH

Wm. Cowan and wife and son, Ralph, spent yesterday in town from their ranch in Government Draw.

CATTLEMAN HERE

Jim Lawry, cattleman of Turner, was in town yesterday.

TO BISBEE

Anna LaBrosse, Kate Igo, and Mrs. Buster Hushin went to Bisbee today for a brief visit with friends.

FROM BISBEE

Judge J. W. Hogan, of Bisbee, was a visitor in town today as a witness in court.

WITNESS

Tom Mooney, merchant's police of Bisbee, was a visitor in town today as a witness in court.

BOY PASSES THROUGH

George Rafferty, of Bisbee, son of the late George Rafferty sr., of that place, and nephew of deputy sheriff Harry Rafferty, stopped for a time today enroute home from the university for the holidays.

VISITING PARENTS

Mrs. E. E. Friday, formerly Miss Mildred Marks, of this city, arrived in Tombstone today from Winslow to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Marks and family.

RETURNED HOME

Miss Peggy Cornelius returned home yesterday following a brief visit in Tucson with friends.

WAS IN TUCSON

Bradford Brandt, assistant cashier of the Cochise County State Bank, spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Tucson on a visit.

HOME FOR XMAS

Lawrence Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Campbell, of Tombstone, is expected to arrive home today from Grand Canyon, where he has been located for the past year since his graduation from the Flagstaff normal, in the Santa Fe railroad offices.

HOME FOR HOLIDAYS

Miss Matia McClelland arrived today from Tucson where she is attending the U. of A., and will spend the holidays with her mothers, Mrs. F. Helen McClelland.

FRIDAY

GOES TO BISBEE

Court Reporter J. M. Philippowski went to Bisbee today on business.

KOLB TO L. A.

Dick Kolb, deputy county recorder, left today for Los Angeles